

Premier Platforms Limited

Driving Policy Statement

Premier Platforms is committed to improving the safety of its employees and third parties with the ultimate goal of minimizing injuries due to vehicle transportation.

All employees and hauliers are required to adhere to this policy when driving or operating with Company or contracted vehicles at all times as well as when driving or operating with their personal vehicle, either on the job or during routine journeys from home to work and vice versa.

Our Commitment

1. Provide Company owned or contracted vehicles, where applicable, with all legal documentation.
2. Ensure all Company owned and contracted vehicles are well maintained, in good running condition and suitable for the purpose.
3. Record driving accidents and analyse them with a view to identifying causes and defining possible measures to avoid reoccurrence.

In line with Management effort, the following control measures have been identified and must be implemented, in agreement with legal requirements.

- Driver must have a valid driving licence for the vehicle to be driven
- Driver must be in good health and physically able to perform the duties of driving
- Driver and passengers must wear seat belts at all times
- Driver must adhere to the speed limits
- Driver must maintain a safe distance from the vehicle in front
- Drivers must not use a handheld phone whilst driving
- Driving under the influence of alcohol, drugs or controlled substances is strictly prohibited
